First Airbus A350 in Mainland China is equipped with Recaro seats

Air China is launch customer of A350 in Mainland China and opts for Recaro economy class seats

SCHWAEBISCH HALL, Germany/ Beijing, China – Air China ordered 2500 CL3710 economy class seats from Recaro Aircraft Seating for their ten new Airbus A350 aircrafts. China's flag carrier is the first operator of the A350 in Mainland China.

Air China's scope of delivery includes a total of 2500 CL3710 economy class seats for ten aircrafts of the type Airbus A350. In Mainland China the airline is the Airbus A350 launch customer. The first flight took place on August 14th from Beijing to Shanghai. Before introduction on long-haul routes Air China will test their new Airbus A350 on domestic flights.

The CL3710, Recaro's bestseller with over 250,000 orders worldwide, brings together all the German aircraft seat manufacturer's expertise and skill. The CL3710 offers Air China long-haul seating comfort for passengers in the economy class. The six-way adjustable headrest, the newly developed footrest and articulated seat pan make the seat one of the best in its class.

And, weighing less than 12 kilograms, it ensures exceptionally efficient and economical flying.
