RECARO AIRCRAFT SEATING AWARDS SUPPLIERS FOR OUTSANDING PARTNERSHIP

SCHWAEBISCH HALL, GERMANY, JUNE 25, 2025 – RECARO Aircraft Seating (RECARO), a global leader in premium aircraft seating solutions, hosted the 14th annual Global Supplier Day to recognize suppliers who go above and beyond to ensure quality products are utilized in every RECARO seat.

With the aviation industry experiencing significant growth, RECARO is seeing a double-digit growth rate which significantly increases demand from suppliers. Under the theme of “Driving Growth – Your Contribution” the importance of partnership was highlighted through various workshops and an award ceremony. Four award categories were announced – Non-Production Material, Newcomer, Customer Service, and Production Material – where winning suppliers received a RECARO Gaming Aer for their outstanding contribution to the past year’s success.

CND Construction Co. Ltd., based in China, received the Non-Production Material Award for their high-quality services provided during the recent expansion phase of the RECARO Aircraft Seating China facility. Their technical solutions and seamless communication were pivotal to the success of the project.

Newcomer, D.MAG New Material Technology Co., Ltd. of China, adapted extremely fast to the high-quality requirements by RECARO and were able to realize a stable and reliable series production with their professional solutions.

Long-time supplier in Germany, EBCO GmbH, who offers a variety of parts for RECARO seats, including foamed and thermoformed parts, and sewing assemblies, received the Customer Service Award for driving constant process improvements to keep short lead times, high quality, and remain competitive in a global environment. It's this mentality that creates a reliable partner for RECARO and ultimately our customers.

Supplier for complex metal machining parts, Suzhou Lianjia Precision Machinery Co., Ltd. out of China, showcased an outstanding ability to respond swiftly and effectively to ensure resources were available to keep projects on track therefore securing their recognition in the Production Material Award category. Runner-ups included Thailand-based Summit Lenso Co., Ltd. and Poland-based Transcal Polska s.c..

“The aviation industry and especially we as RECARO, demand precision, excellent performance, 100% quality, and a very high level of flexibility,” said Christoph Krueger, Head of Purchasing at RECARO Aircraft Seating Germany. “Thank you to all our supply chain partners, for welcoming challenges, pushing for solutions, and your contribution to our joined success.”

“Our suppliers are essential to the vision and quality RECARO Aircraft Seating has upheld as standard for over 50 years,” said Mark Hiller, CEO of RECARO Aircraft Seating and RECARO Holding. “Partnering with like-minded companies and their continuous commitment to high-quality products enables us to maintain our market leadership in the industry and deliver outstanding seating solutions to our customers.”
